HENRY EVANS RECEIVES ISA'S 2019 OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION AWARD

DALE CITY, VA (March 19, 2019) – Henry Evans, Founder and Managing Partner of Dynamic Results, was presented with the 2019 Outstanding Contribution Award at ISA-The Association of Learning Providers' Annual Business Retreat Awards Dinner, held in Scottsdale, AZ, on March 19, 2019. The designation acknowledges an individual who has gone "above and beyond" through consistent, exceptional work on ISA-related activities.

"Henry hasn't been a member of ISA for long, but in that short period of time, he's made a huge contribution to the association," says Pam McLean, CEO, Hudson Institute of Coaching, and Chair of the Awards Committee. "Everything he does, he does with humor, candor and humility, and you can count on him to follow through when you need him. As one ISAer told us, 'I would call him in a pinch, and I would trust him.'"

Since joining ISA, Evans has been a tireless advocate for the association, encouraging new members to get involved and connecting them to other people and helpful resources. This year marked his second year on the Annual Business Retreat planning committee, and in addition to being generous with his feedback and asking the necessary, challenging questions, he stepped up to present a breakout session at the 2019 event.

"Henry always brings a sense of humor to any situation and helps keep the tone light, even when tough decisions have to be made," says Pamela J. Schmidt, Executive Director of ISA. "He often insists on sharing the recognition with others, so it's a delight to be able to take this opportunity to shine the spotlight on him and the value he brings, both to ISA as a whole and to his peers on an individual basis."
